

12 Men competed in the Highliner Competition for the cash prize. The race was a series of fishing related tasks beginning with a raw Oyster shooter, then they had to restack 7 Dungeness pots 10 feet away 7 high, coil king crab line, then splice 3 knots one with a hook, sew a hole in drag net.

From there he had to don a survival suit- jump into a life raft and pull 180lb dummy aboard, take off the suit then tie up to the dock. Finally, guzzle a rat bastard root beer and get kissed, then slapped by a bar maid.

Mike Retherford, 2nd place out of 12 men.
